(ii) Not less than twenty-four hours notice of meetings of the Executive specifying the place, day and hour of such meeting, shall be given to the members of the Executive personally or by mail or by phone.

(iii) The Executive may, by a resolution passed by a majority of the entire Executive, from time to time fix a quorum for meetings of the Executive, which said quorum shall not be fixed at less than one-half of the number of the offices of the Executive in any event, but until so fixed, any four members of the Executive, including either the president or vice-president or both of them, shall constitute a quorum.

(iv) The president or in his absence, the vice-president, shall be chairman of any meeting of the Executive.

Article 8. MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE:

(a) The president shall be chief officer of the Executive. The president shall preside at all meetings of the Executive, shall have the general and active management of the business, social and other activities of MAARC INC., shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Executive are carried into effect. The president shall be a non-voting member of all committees.

(b) The vice-president shall, in the absence or disability of the president, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the president, and shall perform such other duties and exercise such other powers as the president may delegate from time to time or as the Executive may prescribe. The vice-president shall be a non-voting ex-officio member of all committees.

(c) The secretary shall attend all meetings of members and of the Executive, and act as secretary of such meetings and record all votes and minutes of all proceedings in the books maintained for that purpose. The secretary shall give notice of all meetings of members and of the Executive, shall receive all communications and correspondence addressed to MAARC INC. and shall submit same to the Executive and reply thereto as directed by the Executive. The secretary shall also perform such other duties as the Executive or the president may prescribe.

(d) The treasurer shall manage the financial affairs of MAARC INC. under the direction and supervision of the Executive. The treasurer shall have the custody of MAARC INC.'s funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to MAARC INC. and shall deposit all monies and other valuables in the name of and to the credit of MAARC INC. in such depositories as may be designated by the Executive from time to time. The treasurer shall disburse the funds of MAARC INC. as may be ordered by the Executive, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements and shall render to the Executive whenever they may require it an accounting of all transactions as treasurer and of the financial position of MAARC INC.. The treasurer shall also perform such duties as the Executive or the president may prescribe.

(e) (i) Directors, of which there shall be three, shall be members of the Executive and shall attend all meetings of the members and of the Executive. Each director shall perform such duties and exercise such powers as the Executive may prescribe.

(ii) Directors' terms shall last three years and shall be staggered so that one new director will be elected each year.

Article 9 EXECUTION OF BANKING AND OTHER DOCUMENTS:

(a) The Executive may from time to time authorize any member of the Executive or any other member or members to sign, execute and deliver all documents and other instruments in writing, necessary or desirable for banking purposes, but until such time as the Executive so authorizes any such member or members, each cheque or other banking document issued for and in the name of MAARC INC. shall be signed by the president or treasurer and any other one of the above designated members of the Executive who has not already signed such cheque or document.

(b) All contracts, obligations and documents other than for banking purposes, shall be signed for and on behalf of MAARC INC. by the president, or in his absence, the vice-president and shall be countersigned by the secretary or, in his absence, by the treasurer or, in their absence, by any director.

Article 10. FINANCIAL MATTERS:

(a) Unless otherwise ordered by resolution of the Executive, the fiscal year of MAARC INC. shall end on the 30th day of September of each year. No financial transaction shall be conducted after the end of the fiscal year.

(b) (i) A financial statement covering the fiscal period that ends on September 30 each year and a balance sheet as of such date shall be prepared by the treasurer and shall be signed by him and shall be submitted to the Executive not later than fifteen days after such date. The Executive shall arrange for the financial statement and balance sheet to be audited by a person or persons not a member of the Executive, and the audited statement and balance sheet shall then be signed by the president on behalf of the Executive with an endorsement of the Executive's approval or disapproval of same, and copies of the audited statement and balance sheet bearing such endorsement shall be submitted to the regular meeting of members to be held in October of that year.

(ii) The treasurer shall also prepare a statement of accounts covering the six months' period that ends on the 31st of March in each year and a balance sheet showing the financial position of MAARC INC. as of such date, and he shall submit copies of such unaudited statement and balance sheet to a regular meeting of members as soon as it is possible to do so.

(c) The following limitations and restrictions shall be applicable to all disbursements or commitments of the funds of MAARC INC.:

(i) No meeting of the Executive and no member or members of the Executive or of MAARC INC. shall disburse or commit or authorize or instruct any other person to disburse or commit any MAARC INC. funds for any expenditure or other purpose unless such disbursement or commitment shall be authorized by or approved and authorized in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution.

(ii) The treasurer shall prepare a budget in each fiscal year, setting forth details of all revenues and disbursements reasonably anticipated for MAARC INC. in such year, and the Executive shall submit the budget to the regular October meeting in that year for approval by the majority vote of the members present at such meeting. The meeting of members shall either approve the budget as presented or it shall amend and approve such budget, and such approval shall constitute approval and authorization by the members of MAARC INC. for the Executive to expend and disburse the respective amounts set forth and included in the approved budget.

(iii) Subject to the limitations imposed by paragraph (iv) below, each disbursement or commitment of MAARC INC. funds in excess of $ 10.00, other than disbursements or commitments included in an approved budget, shall require and may be made only with the prior approval of the Executive.

(iv) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (iii) above, the Executive shall not approve or permit disbursements and commitments totalling more than $ 100.00 in any one calendar month, exclusive of disbursements or commitments included in an approved budget, unless and until such unbudgeted disbursements and commitments in excess of $ 100.00 have been submitted to and approved by a regular meeting of members.

Article 11. COMMITTEES:

(a) The Executive may from time to time establish and appoint committees to assist it in any of the business, social or other activities of MAARC INC.. Such committees shall report only to the Executive and shall hold office at the discretion of the Executive.

(b) Notwithstanding provisions of paragraph (a) above, a custodian shall be appointed by each club Executive to have care and custody of club-owned communications and related equipment, that these be recorded and said record be kept in the book of charter.

(c) Only persons who are full members in good standing shall be appointed to chair a committee.

(d) Only persons who are full members in good standing and who meet DOC requirements shall be appointed to the Delegated Examiners' Committee.

Article 12. AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION:

The repeal or amendment of the Constitution may be initiated by the Executive if it delivers a copy of its proposed amendment to the secretary, or by any five full members if they sign and deliver a copy of their proposed amendment to the secretary. Upon receipt of any such proposed amendment, the secretary shall give notice to each member of MAARC INC. at least fourteen days prior to a regular meeting of members for consideration at such meeting, and the secretary shall forward a copy of the proposed amendment with such notice. The MAARC INC. bulletin is to be accepted as an official method of communication to the membership of MAARC INC. In the event that the proposed amendment is approved and adopted by the votes of at least two-thirds of the members present at the meeting referred to in the notice, the Constitution shall thereupon be amended by and to the extent of such approval. An amendment of the Constitution may be made by notice of motion by any full member.

Article 13. REPEALS PREVIOUS CONSTITUTION:

Any Constitution or Constitutions or by-law or by-laws of MAARC INC. heretofore adopted or enacted are hereby repealed.

Article 14. ITEMS NOT COVERED IN CONSTITUTION:

Robert's rules of order shall govern any procedure not covered by the Constitution.
